Pitchstone Exploration Ltd.

(An Exploration Stage Company)

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

March 31, 2009

(Unaudited)

1. Nature and Continuance of Operations

The Company was incorporated under the British Columbia Company Act on April 24, 2003. The Company is an exploration stage company engaged principally in the acquisition and exploration of mineral properties. The recovery of the Company's investment in its mineral properties is dependent upon the discovery, development and sale of mineral products and the ability to raise sufficient capital to finance this activity. The ultimate outcome of this activity cannot presently be determined because it is contingent on future matters.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

a) Basis of Consolidation

These consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company, a 51.73% interest in the joint venture with Uranium One Inc. ("Uranium One"), a 50% interest in the joint venture with Triex Minerals Corporation ("Triex"), and a 38.8% interest in a joint venture with JCU (Canada) Exploration Company, Limited. ("JCU") and Uranium One.

b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

c) Mineral Properties and Deferred Exploration Expenditures

The Company is in the process of exploring its mineral properties and has not yet determined whether these properties contain Mineral Reserves.

Mineral exploration costs are capitalized on an individual project basis until such time as a Mineral Reserve is defined or the project is abandoned. Costs for a producing deposit are amortized on a unit-of-production method based on the estimated life of the Mineral Reserves, while costs for the projects abandoned are written-off.

The recoverability of the amount capitalized for the undeveloped mineral properties is dependent upon the determination of Mineral Reserves, confirmation of the Company's interest in the underlying mineral claims, the ability to farm out its mineral properties, the ability to obtain the necessary financing to complete their development and future profitable production or proceeds from the disposition thereof.

Title to mineral properties may involve inherent risks due to the difficulties of determining the validity of claims. The Company has investigated title to all of its mineral properties and, to the best of its knowledge, titles to all of its properties are in good standing.

The Company conducts certain of its mineral exploration activities through joint ventures and accounts for these activities by the proportionate consolidation method under which the Company's proportionate share of the joint ventures assets and liabilities are included in the Company's account.

d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are highly liquid investments, such as guaranteed investment certificates with major financial institutions, having a maturity of 12 months or less at acquisition, that are readily convertible to contracted amounts of cash.

e) Environmental Expenditures and Asset Retirement Obligations

The operations of the Company have been, and may in the future be, affected from time to time in varying degree by changes in environmental regulations, including those for future reclamation and site restoration costs. Both the likelihood of new regulations and their overall effect upon the Company vary greatly and are not predictable. The Company's policy is to meet or, if possible, surpass standards set by relevant legislation, by application of technically proven and economically feasible measures.

Environmental expenditures that relate to ongoing environmental and reclamation programs are charged against earnings as incurred or capitalized and amortized depending on their future economic benefits. Estimated future reclamation and site restoration costs, when the ultimate liability is reasonably determinable, are charged against earnings over the estimated remaining life of the related business operation, net of expected recoveries.

f) Amortization

The Company provides for amortization on its fixed assets on a declining balance basis (one-half of the rate is taken in the year of acquisition).

Following are the amortization rates:

Computer equipment	30%
Office furniture	20%
Exploration equipment	30%
Computer software	100%

g) Income Taxes

The Company accounts for the future tax consequences of the differences in the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases using tax rates expected to apply when these temporary differences are settled. When the future realization of income tax assets does not meet the test of being more likely than not to occur, a valuation allowance in the amount of the potential future benefit is taken and no net assets are recognized. The Company has taken a valuation allowance against all potential tax assets.

h) Share Capital

- i) The proceeds from the exercise of stock options, warrants and escrow shares are recorded as share capital in the amount for which the option, warrant or escrow share enabled the holder to purchase a share in the Company.
- ii) Share capital issued for non-monetary consideration is recorded at an amount based on fair market value.

2. Significant Accounting Policies - Continued

i) Flow-through Shares

The Company may issue securities referred to as flow-through shares, whereby the investor may claim the tax deductions arising from the expenditure of the proceeds. When exploration expenditures are renounced to the investors and the Company has reasonable assurance that the expenditures will be completed, a future income tax liability is recognized and share capital is reduced. Previously unrecognized tax assets may then offset this liability, which amount would then be included in income.

j) Stock-based Compensation

The Company has a stock option plan as disclosed in Note 7. The Company has adopted the fair value method for stock-based compensation granted to employees, non-employees and for all direct awards of stock. The fair value of stock options is determined by the Black-Scholes Option Pricing Model with assumptions for risk-free interest rates, dividend yields, volatility factors of the expected market price of the Company's common shares and expected life of the options. The fair value of direct awards of stock is determined by the quoted market price of the Company's stock.

k) Earnings (Loss) per Share

Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing income (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. The computation of diluted earnings per share assumes the conversion, exercise or contingent issuance of securities only when such conversion, exercise or issuance would have a dilutive effect on earnings per share. The dilutive effect of convertible securities is reflected in diluted earnings per share by application of the "if converted" method. The dilutive effect of outstanding options and warrants and their equivalents is reflected in diluted earnings per share by application of the treasury stock method.

l) Changes in accounting policies

(i) Goodwill and Intangible Assets

The CICA issued Section 3064 – Goodwill and Intangible Assets replacing Section 3450, Research and Development Costs. The new standard establishes guidelines for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of research and development costs. The Company adopted this policy during the first quarter of the 2009 fiscal year and this standard did not have a material impact on the Company's financials statements.

(ii) Credit Risk and the Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities

In January 2009, the CICA issued the Emerging Issues Committee ("EIC") Abstract EIC-173, "Credit Risk and the Fair Value of Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities", effective for interim and annual financial statements ending on or after January 20, 2009. EIC-173 provides further information on the determination of the fair value of financial assets and liabilities under Section 3855, "Financial Instruments – Recognition and Measurement". It states that an entity's own credit and credit risk of the counterparty should be taken into account in determining the fair value of financial assets and liabilities, including derivative instruments. EIC-173 should be applied retroactively, without restatement of prior periods, to all financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value. The Company adopted this abstract during the first quarter of the 2009 fiscal year and this standard did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

(iii) New standards

On January 1, 2008, the Company adopted the following standards of the CICA Handbook Sections. There was no material impact on the Company's financial condition or operating results as a result of the adoption of these new standards:

- (a) Section 1400 – General Standards of Financial Statement Presentation, to include requirements for management to assess and disclose an entity's ability to continue as a going concern (see Note 1).
- (b) Section 3862 – Financial Instruments – Disclosures, which replaces Section 3861 and provides expanded disclosure requirements that provide additional detail by financial asset and liability categories (see Note 9).
- (c) Section 3863 – Financial Instruments – Presentation, to enhance financial statement users' understanding of the significance of financial instruments to an entity's financial position, performance and cash flows (see Note 9).
- (d) Section 1535 – Capital Disclosures, which establishes standards for disclosing information about an entity's capital and how it is managed (see Note 10). Under this standard, the Company will be required to disclose the following:
 - qualitative information about its objectives, policies and processes for managing capital;
 - summary quantitative data about what it manages as capital;
 - whether during the period it complied with any externally imposed capital requirement to which it is subject; and
 - when the Company has not complied with such externally imposed capital requirements, the consequences of such non-compliance.

(iv) Consolidated Financial Statements and Non-controlling Interests

In January 2009, the CICA issued the new handbook Section 1601, "Consolidated Financial Statements", and Section 1602, "Non-controlling Interests", effective for fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2011. Earlier adoption of these recommendations is permitted. These pronouncements further align Canadian GAAP with US GAAP and IFRS. Sections 1601 and 1602 change the accounting and reporting for ownership interest in subsidiaries held by parties other than the parent. Non-controlling interests are to be presented in the consolidated statement of financial position within equity but separate from the parent's equity. The amount of consolidated net income attributable to the parent and to the non-controlling interest is to be clearly identified and presented on the face of the consolidated statement of income. In addition, these pronouncements establish standards for a change in the parent's ownership interest in a subsidiary and the valuation of retained non-controlling equity investments when a subsidiary is deconsolidated.

They also establish reporting requirements for providing sufficient disclosures that clearly identify and distinguish between the interests of the parent and the interests of the non-controlling owners. The Company is currently considering the impact of adopting these pronouncements on its consolidated financial statements in 2011 in connection with the conversion to IFRS.

(v) Business Combinations

In January 2009, the CICA issued the new handbook Section 1582, "Business Combinations" effective for fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2011. Earlier adoption of Section 1582 is permitted. This pronouncement further aligns Canadian GAAP with US GAAP and IFRS and changes the accounting for business combinations in a number of areas. It establishes principles and requirements governing how an acquiring company recognizes and measures in its financial statements identifiable assets acquired, liabilities assumed, any non-controlling interest in the acquire, and goodwill acquired. The section also establishes disclosure requirements that will enable users of the acquiring company's financial statements to evaluate the nature and financial effects of its business combinations. Although the Company is considering the impact of adopting this pronouncement on the consolidated financial statements, it will be limited to any future acquisitions beginning in 2011.

m) International Financial Reporting Standards

On February 13, 2008, the Canadian Accounting Standards Board ("AcSB") confirmed the mandatory changeover date to International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") for Canadian profit-oriented publicly accountable entities (PAE's") such as the Company.

The AcSB requires that IFRS compliant financial statements be prepared for annual and interim financial statements commencing on or after January 1, 2011. For PAE's with a December 31 year-end, the first unaudited interim financial statements under IFRS will be the quarter ending March 31, 2011, with comparative financial information for the quarter ended March 31, 2010. The first audited annual financial statements will be for the year ending December 31, 2011, with comparative financial information for the year ended December 31, 2010. This also means that all the opening balance sheet adjustments relating to the adoption of IFRS must be reflected in the January 1, 2010 opening balance sheet which will be issued as part of the comparative financial information in the March 31, 2011 unaudited interim financial statements.

The Company intends to adopt these requirements as set out by the AcSB and other regulatory bodies. At this time, the impact of adopting IFRS cannot be reasonably quantified. During fiscal year 2009, the Company will continue to evaluate the impact of IFRS on the Company and develop and put in place a plan for the conversion to IFRS. If the Company decides not to early adopt the standards, the actual conversion work will occur in late 2009 and 2010, in anticipation of the preparation of the April 1, 2010 balance sheet that will be required for comparative purposes for all periods ending in 2011.

When the exploration programs started in early 2009, Uranium One's participant interest was further diluted. The participating interests in Darby, Waterfound, Moon Lake, and the Lynx Lake properties for the Company and Uranium one are 54.50% and 45.50%, respectively. Participating interests in the Candle property for the Company, Uranium One, and JCU are 40.87%, 34.13%, and 25%, respectively.

Stock-based Compensation

The Company recognizes compensation expense for all stock options granted using the fair value method of accounting. Total fair value of stock options vested during the three months ended period March 31, 2009 was $12,281 (same period in 2008: $765,963).

The following weighted average assumptions were used in the Black-Scholes calculation of the value of stock options granted during the periods:

	2009	2008
Risk-free interest	1.69 - 4.23%	1.69 – 4.23%
Expected dividend yield	-	-
Expected stock price volatility	80 – 90%	80 – 90%
Expected option life in years	1- 4	1- 4

Option pricing models require the input of highly subjective assumptions including expected stock price volatility. Changes in the subjective input assumptions can materially affect the fair value estimate and therefore the existing models do not necessarily provide a reliable single measure of the fair value of the Company's stock options.

Capital assets
Canada	$ 22,700,831	$ 23,160,924

	$ 24,216,496	$ 24,458,268

9. Financial instruments

The fair values of the Company's cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments and accounts receivable, prepaid expenses and deposits, accounts payables and accrued liabilities, and due to related parties/joint venture parties approximate their carrying values.

The Company's financial instruments are exposed to certain financial risks, including currency risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, and interest risk.

(a) Currency risk

The Company's property interests in Africa make it subject to foreign currency fluctuations and inflationary pressures which may adversely affect the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company is affected by changes in exchange rates between the Canadian Dollar and foreign functional currencies. The Company does not invest in foreign currency contracts to mitigate the risks. For every $0.01 change in the South African Rand to Canadian dollar exchange rate, the Company's costs will change by approximately $27,000.

(b) Credit risk

The Company's cash and short-term investments are held in large Canadian financial institutions. Short-term investments are composed of financial instruments issued by Canadian banks. These investments mature at various dates over the current operating period. The Company does not have any asset-backed commercial paper in its short-term investments. The Company's accounts receivable consists primarily of goods and services tax due from the federal government of Canada.

(c) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company manages liquidity risk through the management of its capital structure. Accounts payable and accrued liabilities are due within the current operating period.

(d) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The risk that the Company will realize a loss as a result of a decline in the fair value of the short-term investments is limited because these investments, although available for sale, are withdrawn with interest as needed. For every 1% change in interest rates, the Company's revenue will change by approximately $58,000.

10. Management of capital risk

The Company manages its cash and cash equivalents, common shares, stock options and warrants as capital (see Note 7). The Company's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern in order to pursue the exploration of its mineral properties and to maintain a flexible capital structure which optimizes the costs of capital at an acceptable risk.

The Company manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may attempt to issue new shares, issue new debt, acquire or dispose of assets or adjust the amount of cash and cash equivalents.

In order to facilitate the management of its capital requirements, the Company prepares an annual expenditure budget that is updated as necessary depending on various factors, including successful capital deployment and general industry conditions. The annual budget is approved by the Board of Directors.

In order to maximize ongoing exploration efforts, the Company does not pay out dividends. The Company's investment policy is to invest its short-term excess cash in highly liquid short-term interest-bearing investments with maturities 365 days or less from the original date of acquisition, selected with regards to the expected timing of expenditures from continuing operations.

The Company expects its current capital resources to be sufficient to carry its exploration plans and operations through 2009.

The Company has a lease commitment for its offices in Vancouver, British Columbia, for approximately $2,400 monthly rent from May 1, 2006 until April 30, 2010.
